

6 Nations Rugby England Vs Ireland Twickenham.

Saturday 27th February 2010. KO – 16:00

The Grand Slam champions come to Twickenham for a game that always produces drama, Passion and excitement in equally high measures.

After 60 years of waiting Ireland finally emulated their Grand Slam winning side of 1948, but now they have the taste for success and will not be relinquishing their hold on the 6 Nations trophy without a fight.

With the rivalry between these two teams so well documented this is bound to be another chapter to the enduring saga that is the Ireland and England rivalry.

Your full pre and post match hospitality will take place at the home of Harlequins RFC the Twickenham Stoop, which is situated two minutes from the stadium.

Private tables are available for 6, 10 or 12 guests, with smaller numbers accommodated on shared tables.
