

6 Nations Rugby England Vs Wales Twickenham.

Saturday 6th February 2010. KO - 17:00

With just over a year to go until the 2011 World cup commences in New Zealand it is crunch time for all involved in the 6 nations as teams try to decide on their best line-ups to prepare for a world cup.

The 2010 6 Nations kicks off with a fierce rivalry being reignited between England and Wales. Last year's encounter between the two teams was a hard fought battle at the Millennium stadium in Cardiff, where Wales came out on top by 23-15 thanks to a try from Lee halfpenny.

Having been written off by most of the rugby world as serious contenders England will be looking to prove that they are still a force to be reckoned with.

Your full pre and post match hospitality will take place at the home of Harlequins RFC, the Twickenham Stoop situated two minutes from the stadium.

Private tables are available for 6, 10 or 12 guests, with smaller numbers accommodated on shared tables.
