

2010 Cheltenham Festival of Racing, Cheltenham.

Tuesday 16th To Friday 19th March 2010.

The 26 races that make up the Cheltenham Festival are the most hotly contested of the entire racing calendar, with around 500 horses competing.

Whatever the weather, spring arrives in Gloucestershire on the first Tuesday of the Festival. As helicopters rattle in over Cleeve Hill, the first of 250,000 pints of Guinness are sunk and spectators roar off the start of the first race of the Festival.

The now traditional roar is an outpouring of a range of emotions from the relief of the racing community that Cheltenham has finally come round again, to the exhilaration of the crowd at the thought of what lies ahead - four days of high drama, effort and excess that will test both wallets and livers.

Last year the major championship races produced drama and brilliance in equal measure. The week climaxes with the Cheltenham Gold Cup on Friday. And last year's highlight of the festival was undoubtedly Kauto Star's demolition of the entire field to make history and reclaim his Totesport Cheltenham Gold Cup crown.

Our superb luxuriously appointed marquees are situated in a great location in the heart of the action and with easy access to the Parade Ring and Grandstand. All marquees will be decorated to the highest standards to add that lasting touch of class.
